

To Users of Paint

ALWAYS bear in mind it is false economy to use CHEAP PAINT. The cost per gallon is not the only thing to be considered. It would be cheaper to pay $2.00 per gallon for a paint that will last eight or ten years than to pay $1.00 per gallon for a paint that won't last one year, causing you to repeat and pay for more paint as well as that much larger item, the cost of applying it.

The Best Is The Cheapest--- Because it lasts longer, and if you will buy a really first-class paint like the SHERWIN-WILLIAMS, while it will cost a little more per gallon, you will save money in the long run. SHERWIN-WILLIAMS PAINT costs more than cheap paint, because it is made of pure materials of the highest grade, but these pure materials make it worth more to you because they make the paint cover more surface and outwear two or three times over the so-called cheap paints which are made to sell, not to last. It is a plain proposition that SHERWIN-WILLIAMS PAINT covering 300 square feet, two coats, is cheaper at 50 per cent. higher price than a paint covering only 200 square feet, not to mention its far greater durability. No matter what you want to paint or varnish there is a SHERWIN-WILLIAMS product for that purpose, which will prove THE BEST YOU CAN USE.

SIR IAN HAMILTON'S ILL LUCK

Leader of British Forces Once Known as the Unluckiest Man in the Army.

Sir Ian Hamilton, commander in chief of the Dardanelles, who used to be known as the unluckiest man in the army, now finds his title reversed, says the London Chronicle. His reputation for ill luck started in a series of accidents on the field; the wound that shattered an arm, the shell splinters that very nearly destroyed his eyesight and the breaking of his collarbone by a tumble from a restive horse, which lost him the glory of hunting DeWet after he had made his plan of campaign.

Hamilton may be said to share with Wellington the distinction of an ideal dispatch writer, although their qualities are different. But Hamilton surpasses Wellington in the art of public speaking. His speeches on behalf of the territorial movement were winged with flame. The duke, on the other hand, "although he could appreciate events with unfailing nicety, failed in his capacity to describe them." This was said of the duke when he was an old man, but, as his biographer points out, the failing was visible during the earlier stages of his career, "and is the more remarkable from the contrast presented by his dispatches."

A Wonderful Antiseptic.

Germs and infection aggravate ailments and retard healing. Stop that infection at once. Kill the germs and get rid of the poisons. For this purpose a single application of Sloan's Liniment not only kills the pain but destroys the germs. This neutralizes infection and gives nature assistance by overcoming congestion and gives a chance for the free and normal flow of the blood. Sloan's Liniment is an emergency doctor and should be kept constantly on hand. 25c., 50c. The $1.00 size contains six times as much as the 25c.—Advertisement.

Animal and Insect Intelligence.
Most animals have very good ideas about doctoring themselves when they are not well. For instance, an animal suffering from rheumatism keeps in the sun. The warrior ants have ambulances, and when an investigator cuts the antennae of an ant, other ants cover the wound with a transparent fluid secreted in their mouths.

Paxtine

A soluble Antiseptic Powder to be dissolved in water as needed. As a medicinal antiseptic for douches in treating catarrh, inflammation or ulceration of nose, throat, and that caused by feminine ills it has no equal. For ten years the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. has recommended Paxtine in their private correspondence with women, which proves its superiority. Women who have been cured say it is "worth its weight in gold." ### SOUGHT SHOES; GETS SNAKES

Reptile Was Wrapped in Neat Package and Left at Electric Car Station.

Miss Ella M. Kinna, living near here, while on her way to Frederick to purchase a pair of shoes, saw a neatly wrapped package the size of a shoe box lying near her as she stepped to the electric car station at Clifton.

When she took the paper off she found a box bearing the label of a well-known style of woman's shoes, and took the top off. A four-foot black snake sprang in her face. Miss Kinna screamed for help, and the snake was killed. She is now in a highly nervous state as the result of her fright.—Frederick (Md.) Dispatch Philadelphia Record.

TO REMIND HIM.

"Why do you wear that rubber band about your finger?"
"I put that there to remind me of a perfectly good way to get rid of bores who come in and take up my valuable time. I—"
"Well, I've got to be trotting along. Good-by."
"Good-by."

HELD RESPONSIBLE.

"That dog of yours seems to have human intelligence?"
"He ain't that lucky," answered the proprietor of the dog. "If he was to lose his temper an' turn himself loose to hurt somebody he wouldn't have a chance in the world of pleading insanity."

USED TO BE SUCCESSFUL.

Church—You say he is a successful inventor?
Gotham—He used to be.
"Used to be?"
"Yes, he can't invent any excuses now that his wife will believe."

NOTHING TO IT.

"The professor is writing a severe criticism of the Emperor Nero."
"Aw, what's the use? Some people can't never let bygones be bygones."

PROGRESSIVE INFLUENCE.

"Plunks has bought another automobile."
"He's already had two."
"Yes. The first made him hopeful and the second reckless."

BAD IDEA.

"My husband offers to teach me to cook," said the bride.
"I hope," said her mother, "that you won't be foolish enough to learn."

GLOOMY OUTLOOK.

"Have you any unanimity in your family?"
"N'm, but I guess we'll catch it if it's going."
